

Meetings, Classes and Events

COVID-19 Guidelines

Updated February 24, 2022

Meetings and Community Events/Classes Guidelines

Internal NM meetings can be scheduled as long as:

- Meetings can be held in person if all participants are fully masked (6 feet distancing is no longer required)
- No food should be served (food can be individually packaged and taken “to-go”)
- For administrative buildings/spaces:
 - Effective February 28, 2022, masking is no longer required and food/drinks can be served in meetings

Events and classes (CME, Conferences, Community Classes, etc.):

- Fundraising events can be held in person
- Classes can be held in person
- Participants should follow public health mask guidelines (per the location the event/class is taking place)
- For classes/events in NM spaces (excludes separately operated spaces: Woodwind, Beatrix, etc.):
 - Symptom screening/attestation is required upon entering the facility
 - Classes/Events should follow NM masking/food/drink policies per space location
